The Superintendent, dated 9th October 1823. N^o 43/1456.

To enable you to do this I consider that besides the Police establishment above laid down, you should retain the services of your two distinct Constables and of a third Constable as overseer in charge of the Stockade at the reduced pay of two shillings and six pence per diem as well as those of the Scourger, you will also find the services of a second Clerk absolutely required, and therefore sanction the continued employment of the second Clerk in the Police office at £100
