Colonial Secretary's Office
Sydney 17 October 1844

Sir

Some misapprehension having occurred as to the intention of the first paragraph of the depasturing Regulations of 2d April last I do myself the honor to inform you that it is not intended to charge the double fee in cases where a Station bonâ-fide a single one lies partly in one District and partly in another but only in those cases where distinct Stations are situated in contiguous districts — and I am directed to request that if any cases of the former kind have already occurred in your district you will report the same in order that the Extra charge may be refunded.
