at Sebastians Bay, Serpentine Creek, at not later than ten o'clock in the forenoon of every Tuesday, and to start from thence at that hour, and to arrive and deliver the Mails at the Post office at Mount Macedon at not later than seven o'clock of every Wednesday calling always at the Post office at Mount Alexander both on the way to and from the Serpentine Creek there to deliver and receive Mails under direction of the Post Master there.

or the Post Boy or the person or persons employed in the conveyance of the Mails as aforesaid, shall and do when thereto required by any person on the road take in charge, receive, and deliver over to the Postmaster at the Post Office at which he the said John Mills

hereby also agrees to forfeit and pay the sum of Five Shillings when and as often as and in every case when he the said John Mills or the Post Boy or the person or persons so employed as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to carry, receive, or deliver any loose Letter, Newspaper, or Parcel as aforesaid either given by the Postmaster as aforesaid, or any other person or persons whatsoever. And the said John Mills hereby also agrees to forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Shillings for every five minutes delay after the first five minutes from the specified time of starting (no penalty being imposed for the first five minutes delay); and also to forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Shillings for every ten minutes delay after the first ten minutes from the specified time for the delivery of the said Mails at the places of their respective destinations (unavoidable accidents and such delays as may be occasioned by the Postmasters in delivering the Mails always excepted). And he also agrees not to receive or convey, or permit to be received or conveyed, either by himself or any of his Agents, Post Boys, or Servants, directly or indirectly, any Letters, or Packets containing any Letters, except such as shall have been delivered to him or any of his Agents, Post Boys, or Servants, under authority or by the direction of the Postmaster for the District or his Deputies, and except as hereinbefore is excepted. And he agrees to become and be answerable for himself, his Agents, Post Boys, and Servants, and on neglect or breach of this engagement to forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds for each Letter or Packet of Letters so received or conveyed, either by himself or his Agents, Post Boys, or Servants, contrary to these Presents. And further, that all or any of the Penalties or Forfeits and Sums of Money, although arising from the neglect or misconduct or breach by Post Boys or Servants, shall and may be imposed, declared forfeit and levied by the said Postmaster for the District, upon his sole authority; and all such Sums of Money so imposed and declared forfeit, shall and may be by the said Postmaster for the District deducted and received from all or any of the payments to be made to the said John Mills

that upon his performing and fulfilling this Contract and Agreement the Government of New South Wales shall and will pay unto him the Sum of £1000 for the conveyance of the said Mails for the said Year by quarterly payments.

IN WITNESS whereof the said Parties have hereunto set their Hands the day and year first above-mentioned.

Memorandum of Contract and Agreement, made and entered into this 19th day of June in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight Between David A. Beal of Burn Bank in the District of Port Phillip in the Colony of New South Wales of the one part, and HENRY DARLING KEMP, Esquire, Postmaster for the District of Port Phillip, in the Colony of New South Wales, for and on behalf of Her Majesty's Government, of the other part.

THE said David A. Beal do hereby in consideration of the payments hereinafter mentioned, contract, covenant, and agree with the said HENRY DARLING KEMP, Esquire, Postmaster for the District, on behalf of Her Majesty's Government, for the conveyance in the manner after mentioned of Her Majesty's Post Office Mails and Bags of Letters from and to Burn Bank and Horsham by way of Burn Bank in the said District and Colony, and such other Post Office or Post Offices as may hereafter be established on the same line of road during the continuance of this Contract, for the term of one Year, commencing from the 19th day of June One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight And for that purpose the said David A. Beal do hereby agree to find and provide for the said term of one Year, commencing from the 19th day of June One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, good, substantial, and sufficient Carriages, each to be drawn with not less than two Horses, and driven by careful steady Drivers, being free men and of certified good character, for the purpose of conveying the same Mails and Letters, at the times and in the manner hereinafter set forth. And he also agree during the said Year, to cause such Carriages to be driven on the days and at the hours hereafter mentioned, to the Post Offices or places appointed for that purpose by the Postmaster for the District in Burn Bank and Horsham aforesaid, and he also agree by his Agents, Servants, and Drivers, there to receive and take in charge all Post Office Mails, Mail Bags, Newspapers, and Letters which shall, under the authority or by direction of the Postmaster for the District or Postmasters, be delivered to and placed under his or their charge, for conveyance to and from the places aforesaid, and while under charge to keep and convey and deliver the same at the places on the days and at the hours following, or on such other days and at such other hours as the Postmaster for the District shall appoint, in such and the same condition as received, free from damage or loss; that is to say, to leave at the Post Office at Burn Bank at not later than two o'clock in the afternoon of every Tuesday to start from thence at that hour, and to arrive and deliver the Mails at the Post Office at Horsham at not later than two o'clock in the forenoon of every Thursday to start from the Post Office at Horsham at not later than two o'clock in the morning of every Friday to start from thence at that hour, and to arrive and deliver the Mails at the Post Office at Burn Bank at not later than two o'clock in the evening of every Saturday. Calling always at the Post Office at Burn Bank both in the way to and from Horsham thence to deliver and receive Mails under direction of the Postmaster there. Provided that for the first three months, the Mails may be conveyed by short Cart over land at the option of the Contractor, to prevent the contingency of the Weather, but that every precaution shall be taken to keep the Mails dry when so carried on land.

or the Post Boy or the person or persons employed in the conveyance of the Mails as aforesaid, shall and do when thereunto required by any person on the road take in charge, receive, and deliver over to the Postmaster at the Post Office at which he the said David C. Beath

when and as often as and in every case when he the said David C. Beath or the Post Boy or the person or persons so employed as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to carry, receive, or deliver any loose Letter, Newspaper, or Parcel as aforesaid either given by the Postmaster as aforesaid, or any other person or persons whatsoever. And it is hereby further agreed and declared by and between the Parties aforesaid and the said David C. Beath hereby agree that the Carriages and Horses to be by David C. Beath employed in the conveyance of the Mails aforesaid, shall at all times during the said Year be subject to the inspection and be liable to the approval or rejection of the Postmaster for the District, or such person as he shall appoint for that purpose; and that during the said Year David C. Beath will find and provide all Carriages, Horses, and Drivers necessary to carry this Contract into effect, approved of by the said Postmaster for the District, and repair and exchange the same when thereunto required by him; and will also provide secure lockers or boxes, and dry covering for the Mails, Newspapers, and Letters, and keep the same safe and dry; and will not carry or convey, or allow to be carried or conveyed, in and by any one of the said Carriages, drawn by David C. Beath Horses, a larger number than David C. Beath Passengers, exclusive of the Driver, nor allow the same Carriages to be overloaded with luggage; and further, that the Driver of the said Carriages shall be provided with a horn which shall be sounded to give notice of the approach of the Mail to the different stations, and to clear the road from obstructions to its progress; and in every case and as often as any mails shall sustain damage by reason of the said David C. Beath not providing good and secure lockers or boxes and dry covering to keep the same safe and dry, the said David C. Beath agree to forfeit and pay the sum of Ten Pounds, unless the said David C. Beath shall satisfy the Postmaster for the District that the same arose from unavoidable accident: And in case the said David C. Beath or his Agents, or the Driver of any of the said Mail Carriages shall at any time permit or suffer more than David C. Beath Passengers to be carried or conveyed therein the said before-mentioned Contractor agree to forfeit and pay the Sum of Three Pounds for every such Passenger so carried or conveyed beyond the number hereby limited; and David C. Beath also agree to forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Shillings for every five minutes delay after the first five minutes from the specified time of starting (no penalty being imposed for the first five minutes delay); and also to forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Shillings for every ten minutes delay after the first ten minutes from the specified time for the delivery of the said Mails at the places of their respective destinations (unavoidable accidents and such delays as may be occasioned by the Postmasters in delivering the said Mails always excepted). And David C. Beath also agree not to receive or convey, or permit to be received or conveyed, either by David C. Beath or his Agents, Drivers, or Servants, directly or indirectly, any Letters, or Packets containing Letters, except such as shall have been delivered to David C. Beath or his Agents, Drivers, or

Servants, under authority or by the direction of the Postmaster for the District or his Deputies, and except as hereinbefore is excepted. And David C. Beath agree to become and be answerable for David C. Beath Agents, Drivers, and

Servants, and on neglect or breach of this engagement to forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds for each Letter or Packet of Letters so received or conveyed, either by David C. Beath or his Agents, Drivers, or Servants, contrary to these Presents. And further, that all or any of the Penalties or Forfeits and Sums of Money, although arising from the neglect or misconduct or breach by Drivers or Servants, shall and may be imposed and declared forfeit and levied by the said Postmaster for the District, upon his sole authority; and all such Sums of Money so imposed and declared forfeit, shall and may be by the said Postmaster for the District deducted and received from all or any of the payments to be made to the said David C. Beath

 made and entered into this fourth day of June in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.
 Between
Charles Beal and Nicholas Trebeck of said Colony in the District of Port Phillip in the Colony of New South Wales Postmaster of the one part, and HENRY DARLING KEMP, Esquire, Postmaster for the District of Port Phillip, in the Colony of New South Wales, for and on behalf of Her Majesty's Government, of the other part.

THE said Charles Beal and Nicholas Trebeck do hereby in consideration of the payments hereinafter mentioned, contract, covenant, and agree with the said HENRY DARLING KEMP, Esquire, Postmaster for the District, on behalf of Her Majesty's Government, for the conveyance in the manner after mentioned of Her Majesty's Post Office Mails and Bags of Letters from and to Lake Colac and Geelong by the Barwon Bridge and such other Post Office or Post Offices as may hereafter be established on the same line of road during the continuance of this Contract, for the term of Six months Year, commencing from the day of June One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight. And for that purpose the said Charles Beal and Nicholas Trebeck hereby agree to find and provide Horses, with saddles, bridles, and other necessary accoutrements, and careful steady Post Boys, who shall be free, and of certified good character, for the purpose of conveying the said Post Office Mails and Letters, at the times and manner hereinafter set forth. And they also agree to cause such Post Boys and Horses to be on the days and at the hours hereinafter mentioned, at the Post Offices or places appointed for that purpose by the Postmaster for the District, there to receive and take in charge all Post Office Mails, Mail Bags, and Letters which shall, under the authority or by direction of the Postmaster for the District and Postmasters, be delivered to and placed under their charge, for conveyance to and from the places aforesaid, and while under charge to keep and to convey and deliver the same at the places on the days and at the hours following, or on such other days and at such other hours as the Postmaster for the District shall appoint, in such and the same condition as received, free from damage or loss; that is to say, at the Post Office at Lake Colac about eleven o'clock in the morning of every Tuesday, to start from thence at that hour and to arrive and deliver the Mails at the Post Office in Geelong at not later than three o'clock in the afternoon of the same day. And to be at the Post Office at Geelong at not later than six o'clock in the morning of every Saturday, to start from thence at that hour and to arrive and deliver the Mails at the Post Office at Lake Colac at not later than three o'clock in the afternoon of the same day. Calling always at the Post Office at the Barwon, both in the way thence from Geelong, thence to deliver and receive the Mails under directions of the Postmaster there

And further, that upon arrival at either of the places aforesaid, the said Post Boys shall ride direct to the door of the Post Office or place appointed for that purpose there to deliver the said Mails before stopping at any other place whatsoever, in either of the said Townships. And it is hereby agreed and declared that the said shall not assign or part with this Contract except with the special license and consent in writing of the said Postmaster for the District for that purpose first obtained. And it is hereby further agreed and declared by and between the parties aforesaid, and the said as aforesaid shall at all times during the said Year be subject to the inspection and be liable to the approval or rejection of the Postmaster for the District or such person as he shall appoint for that purpose; and also agreed to provide good and secure covering to protect the said Mails from the weather, and keep them safe and dry. And further, that the Post Boys shall each be provided with a horn, which they shall sound to give notice of the approach of the Mail to the different stations. And the said hereby further agrees that he the said or the Post Boy or other person or persons employed in the conveyance of the Mails as aforesaid, shall and do when thereunto required by any Postmaster, carry and deliver private Letter Bags, and also carry and deliver loose Letters and Newspapers and Parcels to and at all places situated on the line of road, as aforesaid. And also, that he the said

or the Post Boy or the person or persons employed in the conveyance of the Mails as aforesaid, shall and do when thereunto required by any person on the road take in charge, receive, and deliver over to the Postmaster at the Post Office at which the said

as aforesaid, to receive and deliver as aforesaid, provided that the said or the Post Boy or the person or persons so employed as aforesaid, shall not be required to deviate or depart from the direct line of road for the purpose of receiving or delivering any Private Letters, Bags, and Newspapers as aforesaid, or receive or collect any charges or Postages for the same. And the said hereby agree to forfeit and pay the sum of Five Pounds as often as and in every case when any mail shall sustain damage by reason of the said not providing good and secure covering to protect the same from the weather, and keep them safe and dry; unless the said shall satisfy the Postmaster for the District that the same arose from unavoidable accident. And the said hereby also agree to forfeit and pay the sum of Five Shillings when and as often as and in every case when he the said

the Sum of Five Shillings for every five minutes delay after the first five minutes of the specified time of starting (no penalty being imposed for the first five minutes delay); and also to forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Shillings for every ten minutes delay after the first ten minutes from the specified time for the delivery of the said Mails at the places of their respective destinations (unavoidable accidents and such delays as may be occasioned by the Postmasters in delivering the Mails always excepted). And he also agrees not to receive or convey, or permit to be received or conveyed, either by himself or any of his Agents, Post Boys, or Servants, directly or indirectly, any Letters, or Packets containing any Letters, except such as shall have been delivered to him or any of his Agents, Post Boys, or Servants, under authority or by the direction of the Postmaster for the District or his Deputies, and except as hereinbefore is excepted. And he agrees to become and be answerable for himself, his Agents, Post Boys, and Servants, and on neglect or breach of this engagement to forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds for each Letter or Packet of Letters so received or conveyed, either by himself or his Agents, Post Boys, or Servants, contrary to these Presents. And further, that all or any of the Penalties or Forfeits and Sums of Money, although arising from the neglect or misconduct or breach by Post Boys or Servants, shall and may be imposed, declared forfeit and levied by the said Postmaster for the District, upon his sole authority; and all such Sums of Money so imposed and declared forfeit, shall and may be by the said Postmaster for the District deducted and received from all or any of the payments to be made to the said
