	Swindley 17 12 75 40532 H.	Has a snappish harsh manner - seldom speaks to one of his scholars without switching at him with his cane - his school appears to be but very poorly taught - the few children present were kept occupied - I provide for two hours instruction in recitations daily, from which it would appear that the W. is exclusively engaged in teaching this subject - instruction unsatisfactory as far as observed superior method are employed by the H. - the children are quiet and orderly, but order seems to be maintained with some degree of harshness - the pupils do not look happy in school.
	H. informed as to D. Is report relative to irregularity in keeping rolls - admonished that similar neglect must not occur again.
	16/16749.	M. Simpson requested in his communications with the Department to adopt a more respectful tone when referring to the workmistress.

Teacher - Head Teacher

1 June 1862

Polam 3 73 24420

Has a good knowledge of his work but is not a disciplinarian

" 3 11 7432621. Of average ability & considerable experience but not smart enough to conduct the business of 440 H.W. Now that the A.C. has so much more work - As an O.E. is a decision of some consideration but there cannot be too of persons to the benefit which would accrue to the school by the appointment of an accomplished & competent teacher.

Polam 3 12 7574/14344. An anxious honest teacher. Hardly smart enough for so large a school - organization good on the whole - defects previously reported appear to have been remedied. Instruction, great improvement is observed in the method. program appears to be strictly carried out. discipline, a great improvement is observed. at this time the discipline was good throughout - records correctly kept.

" 24 8 74 29300. He appears to be very anxious to do well, but he is certainly not sufficiently active and efficient to carry on successfully the work of so large a school.

" 27 11 74 77/835. He appears anxious to do well but is just becoming unable to discharge satisfactorily the duties of a large school. The school is not in a satisfactory condition. The amount of progress made from year to year is very small.

78/11236 Case of 21 March 1878. Superannuated allowance of £121.0.2 per annum from 1 Apr. 78

80/15301 Informed that case (superannuation)

cannot now be interfered with as he was pensioned in the ordinary course.
