MR. HUNT'S SUCCESSOR.

Mr. H. Barkley Appointed.

CANBERRA, Monday.—After a meeting of the Federal Cabinet to-day the Minister for Home Affairs (Mr. Blakeley) announced that Mr. H. Barkley had been selected for the position of Commonwealth meteorologist vacated by Mr. H. A. Hunt. Mr. Barkley is at present assistant research director on the central staff of the Commonwealth Meteorological Bureau. He is aged 47 years, and has had 18 years' service with the Commonwealth in the meteorological branch.

Appeals May be Lodged.

Mr. Hunt retired from the position on February 6 of this year. Mr. W. S. Watt, who is also an assistant director in charge of the statistical branch at the bureau, has acted as Commonwealth meteorologist pending a permanent appointment. There were several applicants for the position, including one from Sydney. It was stated last night that as the appointment was regarded as only provisional appeals would probably be lodged by some of the unsuccessful candidates.
