Died of wounds 9 August 1915.

PATTON.—On the 9th August, at Malta, from wounds received at the Dardanelles on 29th July, Sergeant-Major T. Patton, 7th Battn. 2nd Infantry Brigade, late of Buffalo River Public School (formerly of Scone), loved husband of Ada C. W. L. H., and J., of Yeronga, Queensland, New South Wales.

He was a man who took very great interest in the appearance of his school and its surroundings, and was a good organizer and an efficient teacher. He was also a champion athlete, and, in the final cricket match for the premiership of the Myrtleford district, he made the score of 401, establishing a world's record for third wicket partnership with 647.

The head teacher at Myrtleford writes:—"The keenest sorrow was displayed by his many friends at Myrtleford and at Buffalo River, where he was popular both as a citizen and as a teacher. The children were all fond of him. I regard that as a fine characteristic in a teacher—to be so constituted as to win the good-will and affection of pupils. This is something that cannot be 'estimated.'"
