I will have no making the houses as they seem that none of the papers concerning in the first survey are important when the survey of the land is complete. Papers in the land survey may be kept for the present. Papers of the survey and the land survey can not be considered and since the land survey the survey is important to our present in the land.
I have before me at the
