- (2) This document when completed is to be delivered to the Master, Owner, or Agent, with the receipt for light dues. He is to produce it with the Certificate of Registry of the ship when any other fees or dues are demanded. The penalty on failure of production is set forth in section 23 of the Act.
- (3) It is to be understood that this Certificate of payment of dues, which is issued with the sole object of facilitating the Shipowners' compliance with the provisions of section 23 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1876, is in no way to be regarded as a certificate that the ship is fit to carry any deck cargo whatever.
- (4) The question of unseaworthiness from over or improper loading may or may not arise in this case, but if it does arise, the Board of Trade and their surveyors will deal with the case upon its merits, and entirely unprejudiced by the existence of this Certificate of payment of dues.
