MAN'S BODY IN BAY Jan 19, 1932

POLICE INQUIRIES

SYDNEY, Wednesday.—The discovery of the body of Thomas Raymond McGrory, aged 39 years, in Rozelle Bay to-day has caused investigations by detectives to ascertain if he was the victim of foul play.

On December 27 McGrory, who was single, and the police believe, lived at various addresses about Ultimo, was found in the Sydney Domain with his shirt soaked in blood from two stab wounds in his chest and back. He was in a dangerous condition for some time, although he left the Sydney Hospital against the orders of the doctors.

On January 11 he had recovered sufficiently to give evidence at the Central Police Court against a Maltese who had been arrested and charged with having feloniously wounded him. The Maltese was committed for trial, and has since been in Long Bay gaol pending the hearing.

McGrory's movements since the police court proceedings are unknown, and, so far as the police can ascertain, no one saw him until his body was found floating in Rozelle Bay by Sergeant Maguire and Constable Bent.

To-morrow a post-mortem examination will be made to ascertain whether McGrory was drowned or met his death by other means.

It is believed that McGrory's body had been in the water for four or five days.
