						I have been unable to observe the results of the year's work of the classes taught by Mr Bell. He has very dissatisfied with the failure classes. Apparently his knowledge of the work needed in these classes is very limited. Throughout the year my observations & criticisms of his work & methods were met by a defence of his methods, that he has not much influence over his scholars. He takes good work in some subjects & his management does not deserve such a respect. Management fair. 76 Fair.
