SUBSEQUENT HISTORY.

This image shows a single, blank page from a lined notebook. The paper is off-white or light cream in color. It features several horizontal blue ruling lines spaced evenly down the page. A prominent red line runs horizontally across the top of the page, likely serving as a header margin. The left edge of the page shows the binding of the notebook, and there are some minor stains and wear visible along the bottom and right edges. The overall appearance is that of a clean but slightly aged piece of stationery.

Mr. Harry Dyson,

"Surrey",

BARNABARTHA.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of recent date I have to inform you that according to the records at this office you were born on 10.9.1896 at Melbourne. Your mother's name was Ada Dyson and it appears that when you were about 2 months old she made arrangements with a Mrs. Cottle of, at that time, 115 Palmer Street, Richmond, to have you cared for by the latter. Your mother was unable to carry out her agreement with Mrs. Cottle, and it was on this account that your foster-mother requested this Department to assist in the matter of your maintenance.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
