I Mary Christina Twist of

say:—

- 1 That I am the applicant herein
- 2 That when I applied herein I stated that the amount of a Policy of Insurance on deceased's life forming part of his estate ~~was~~ was £393.3.1 representing the principal sum insured plus bonuses and less loan on the Policy
- 3 That the sworn value of deceased's estate by me, was £442.11.5—including the said sum of £393.3.1
- 4 That the Taxation Office increased the valuation of deceased's estate by £70 being the estimated value of furniture which the said Office held belonged to deceased's estate and this amount being added to the amount sworn to by me brought the said estate to over £500 in value, and a £2 fee consequently became payable on the order granting Probate
- 5 That I have been now informed by the Australian Mutual Provident Society that the amount payable under the said Policy of Insurance is £374.10.5 not £393.3.1. The amount of the said Estate therefore including the £70 added by the Taxation Office is £493.18.9, and being less than £500 the £2 fee referred to is not required.
