make oath and say,

1. That on the twenty eighth day of May One thousand eight hundred and eighty six I at the request of the said deceased and in his presence and in the presence of Jane Hunter whose name appears at the foot of the Will of the above named deceased which Will is now produced and shewn to me and marked "A" and all being present at the same time subscribed my mark to the said Will as a Witness to the execution thereof by the said deceased.

2. That the reason of my subscribing my mark to the said Will in place of my subscribing my name thereto was because at the time I was ^{and am still suffering from} suffering from a sprained finger and it was with pain and difficulty that I could hold a pen even for the purpose of making my mark.

3. That the said Will was partly printed and partly written and in the attestation clause which was printed a blank was left to be filled in with the name of the Testator.

4. That before I made my mark and the said John Hunter subscribed her name to the said Will as Witnesses the said deceased signed his name in the blank in the attestation clause.

5. That the said deceased appeared to be very ill at the time he executed his said Will as aforesaid and was confined to his Bed. That as soon as he had written his name in the blank in the attestation clause as aforesaid he said "now I have done my duty" and thereupon the said Jane Hunter subscribed her name and I made my mark to the said Will as Witnesses.

6. That I am informed and verily believe that the said Richard Ulrich Claesson deceased died at the Melbourne Hospital on the seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty six.
