I Alexander Alexander of Nicholson Street Fitzroy in the Colony of Victoria Grocer make oath and say

1 That I have been acquainted with the above named deceased for a period of fifteen years or thereabouts being a neighbour of his for all that time

2 That during the absence of his housekeeper Elizabeth Gazette in the beginning of September last the said Alfred Whitney sent for me, and requested me to be an executor of a new will he was about to sign but I declined and said I would not object to witness any document he might like to sign - He shortly after sent for me and I witnessed his signature to a document which he informed me was a will,

3 I saw Elizabeth Gazette on her return a few days afterwards and she informed me by the directions of the deceased she had burnt this new will and I thereupon saw the said Alfred Whitney and asked him if the will was destroyed by his direction - he said yes ~~and~~ told her to destroy it and I said ^{and} her do it - He further said that the original will in her possession was to stand good.

4 That I thereupon suggested to the said Alfred Whitney that he should revive the first will executed by him by signing the words which I then wrote on the second ^{writing} page of the will and which ~~words~~ or codicil was produced and shown to me at the time of swearing this my affidavit and marked with the letter B

5 That the said Alfred Whitney signed the said codicil in the presence of myself and one Marcus Martin Field of Nicholson Street Fitzroy Grocers Salesman (in my employ) and I and the said Marcus Martin Field then and there at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other thereto signed our names as witnesses the said Alfred Whitney first signing then myself and lastly the said Marcus Martin Field
