Ret 27.7.80

1. Prisoners may write a letter on arrival to their friends, and one other every three months.
 2. They must confine themselves strictly to their own domestic or private matters, and are not permitted to comment on the discipline or arrangements of the Establishment, or on public or political affairs.
 3. They are not to write closer than the ruled lines, nor across.
 4. Any matter which may appear objectionable will be expunged, or the letter may be withheld, as provided by the Regulations.

The Hon

The Chief Secretary

Sir

I beg most respectfully to request your permission to send for my sister Mrs Stollion to visit me at the Hospital of the above Gaol, to enable me to confer with her respecting the provision of a Solicitor to prepare my defence at my forthcoming trial and likewise for her to procure me the necessary clothing to appear thereat.

I would also ask you to allow me to see my Mother. I have only seen her once.

Your obedient Servant
