My little case will be given to Mr. Justice Millis my usual terms to proceed to England

Confidential.

Government House.

Sydney. 19th Nov. 1842.

Sir,

With reference to my Confidential letter of the 12th instans, respecting Leave of absence to Mr Justice Willis, I have to acquaint you, that the question was submitted to the Executive Council yesterday; and although the opinion of the Council will require confirmation at a second meeting,

His Honor.

Yours

You are at liberty to inform Mr. Willis, that in all probability the Leave will be granted to him "on the usual terms."

The granting Mr. Willis' application on such terms, will ~~entirely~~ carry with it a recommendation, as far as the Council is concerned, of half salary during his absence; and I shall not myself interpose any objection to the granting of it. Mr. Justice Willis however must be aware, that in this,

As in other matters, the acts of this Government are subject to approval or reversal by the Secretary of State.

I have the honor to be,

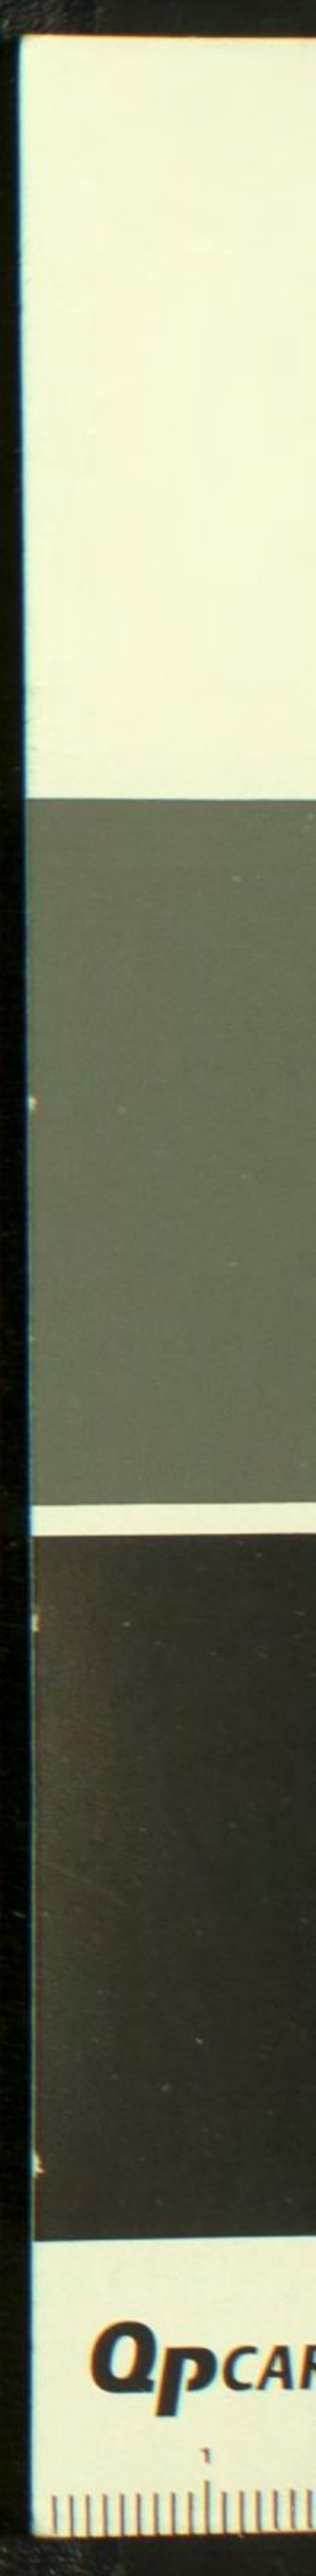

Sir,

Your very obedient servant,

Geo. Gipp.
